

Thank You!!!

There are SO MANY people that helped get us here, that I want to personally thank. I know I will miss some people, and I want to apologize in advance, but please know all of you are appreciated.

Amy Hager — for coordinating the campaign, handling all the details big & small, lining up endorsements and speaking opportunities, and for handling just about any other thing that could possibly come up.

Jennifer Christine — for stepping in as Treasurer and doing a great job on all the PDC filings, keeping track of our money, as well as for all the other things you do.

Chris Clephane of NW Creative, and Everyone who “starred” in our TV commercials and our print ads.

Steve Horn and Kris Lively — for the graphics on all our campaign materials and signs that made us proudly stand out from the rest.

Greg Piper — for creating a great Web site that was attractive, easy to navigate, loads quick and that was updated immediately.

Dave Kimsey my longtime friend, for being the go-to-guy when stuff needed to be done or go somewhere.

Dona and Charles Keating, for all the technical help as well as your friendship and support.

Amy Igloi-Matsuno, Mallory Jackson, Sandy and Rebecca Charbonneau, Dennis Lei, Rudy Swenson, and Brenda Kruse, for your early support, belief in me, and ability to rally the downtown business community behind me.

Former Councilman Don Morrison and Council Member Carolyn Powers for all your help, advice and helping me learn what it was I didn't know but needed to.

Winifred Whitfield for making me look so good in her photos.

Mayor Cary Bozeman, Commissioner Jan Angel, Port Commissioner Bill Mahan, Ed Wolfe, Bryan McConahey, Mike Eliason, D.J. Phipps, Police Chief Al Townsend and Sheriff Steve Boyer — for all your early support, counsel, and advice on issues and strategies.

Bill Hoke — for all your help in strategizing, keeping our message in focus, and even waving signs in the rain.

Virgil Hamilton — for opening the doors to getting the unions behind us at the very beginning.

Mike Brown — for supplying the manpower so our “small number” of signs won't end up littering the environment .

Dick Brown — for being the guy that raised most of the money to get our message out.

Fred Depee — for being my best friend and for your tireless efforts promoting me, encouraging me, helping me in any way I needed — and to hear him tell it, for digging all those postholes for the big signs!

My Grandson Bryce — for being the inspiration to make Port Orchard a better place for his future.

Finally, My Wife Dee — the love of my life, for all your support, encouragement, counsel, advice, and for being all the things you mean to me. But most of all, for loving me.
